Two Firsts At Horse Show

□ Lee Pfaffmann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Pfaffmann of 45 Sohier St., has been accumulating an impressive portfolio of equestrian awards this season. Last week she competed in the Whitman-Hanson 4-H Open Jr. Horse Show in Hanson, along with six other riders from Davenport Barn, Cedar Street. They also represented the Cohasset Riding Club. Lee took two first prizes on her 11-year old Thoroughbred, Mare, in the Hunt Seat Division: Hunter Under Saddle and Fitting and Showmanship. She also won an over-all second place award: "Reserve Champion."

Sheila Sillcocks of Scituate, also from Davenport Barn, took first place in the Senior Equation.

Several weeks ago Lee placed 1st, 2nd, and 4th in a 4-H Show held in Easton. Earlier this Spring she also won second place in the Cohasset Jumpathon, and 1st in 'Training Level One' in the Dressage Show. Lee takes weekly lessons from Chris Rowe, head instructor at Davenport Barn and rides Mare daily. It shows! Congratulations and keep up the good work!
